From the Pastor

A Baptism-shaped Life

Rev. Benjamin Broadbent

In his book "Fear of the Other," Will Willimon wonders about the ways in which humans divide ourselves into we and they, neighbor and stranger, friend and enemy. Do we stress our individual identities to the point of overstressing our uniqueness? "While we are so proudly asserting that 'I am me,'" Willimon writes, "Christians must also stress that my signifiers like class, gender, tribe, race, and history are being reframed and reinterpreted by the infinitely more determinative qualifier – baptized."

I caught my breath when I read that last word. Is baptism really that important, that determinative? In early January each year, the church remembers the story of Jesus' baptism, which prefigures our own baptism. In baptism, we are symbolically put to death and raised to new life. Cultural signifiers we use to justify "us over them" are washed off in the waters of baptism. On the other side of baptism, we belong to a humanity that has fallen short of the glory of God, and yet a humanity which God loves enough to save. How does God save?

- By creating humans in God's own image
- By sending prophets to bring warnings and to show a way out of no way
- By incarnating in the birth of Jesus
- By entering the waters of baptism
- By becoming vulnerable to death on a cross
- By rising from the grave on the third day
- By sending the Holy Spirit and hovering over our every day so that we might live a Baptism-shaped life

If you remember one thing throughout 2017, remember this: baptized, we are not who the wider culture wants to say we are. We are who God says we are, along with our brother Jesus: "Beloved, in whom I am well pleased."

NEW IN THE NURSERY!

Changes are coming to the Nursery program! With gratitude for their dedicated service, we thank Fran Rasmus and Jenna Gonzales, along with Libby Plaucher, Margaux Jame, and Jane Rasmus for their presence in our Nursery. This group of adults and youth have lovingly staffed our Nursery every week for the last several years. We thank you! This Fall two of our middle schoolers, Charlotte Mitchell and Laura Emerson, also volunteered in the Nursery, and we thank them for their service.

As part of the Safe Church program, and from a desire for our members to attend worship services regularly, the church has hired two Nursery Attendants. The Safe Church program requires that we have two adults (background-checked, over 18) working with our children at all times. We welcome Jamie Holmes and Laurelin Lewis to our Nursery! Jamie is a student at Sonoma State University, working towards her Bachelor's in Early Childhood Education, and is an experienced child care provider. Laurelin Lewis is a gymnastics instructor, mother, and comes to us after working in the Nursery at Church of the Incarnation in Santa Rosa. We are delighted to welcome these safe, calm, patient, experienced child care providers to our Nursery program.

We also welcome Jenna Gonzales, our new Nursery Coordinator. She has volunteered to help manage the scheduling and weekly oversight of the Nursery Attendants. We thank you Jenna for your continued service!

Laurelin Lewis

Our high school students, Libby Plaucher, Margaux Jame, and Jane Rasmus will continue to volunteer in the Nursery on a rotational basis, and we are so grateful for their ongoing presence in our Nursery. Thank you, students!

Joys & Concerns

Deaths

We were all saddened by the untimely death of church member Carole Hudlow who died on December 3. A memorial service was held at the Community Church on December 10 officiated by Revs. Broadbent and Knuth. Carole was very involved in many aspects of the Community Church and her smiling face and loving heart will be missed. Our love and prayers to the Hudlow Family, and all her dear friends in this community of faith.

Condolences to the family of Cecil Crowe, a long-time friend of the Community Church, who passed away on December 3 at the age of 95. Before moving to a care home in Santa Rosa, Cecile and his late wife, Margaret, had been frequent visitors to our church since 1997.

Baptism

Allie Lue Curran was baptized into the family of Christ on November 27 at the Community Church, officiated by Rev. Benjamin Broadbent and long-time family friend, Rev. Lizann Bassham. Loving parents are Darlene Buchannan-Curran and Wes Curran. Grandparents are Luanne and Sid Buchannan. Our prayers and blessings are with Allie as she begins her walk in the Christian faith.

Prayers

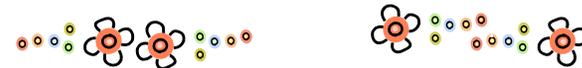

Continued prayers for Donna Tappan as she struggles to manage pain and make her way back to the comfort of her home. She continues to make progress and appreciates your positive thoughts and healing prayers. Cards may be sent to Donna at 1433 Ludwig Ave, Santa Rosa, 95407. To help with medical expenses, search "Donna Tappan" at www.plumfund.com.

Prayers for Judy Peterson as she recovers from a broken foot. Grateful for the knee scooter from Judy Stupfel, it helps her manage her non-weight bearing maneuvers, per doctor orders!

Prayers for Nancy Mathews who is now home following rehab for wrist surgery.

Christmas Eve Pageant

Thank you to Pastor Rachel and all the parents for your help with the Christmas Eve Pageant – the children were adorable and we had so many children involved in the pageant – wonderful! Costumes were organized by Kathy Bell and Paula Berndt; Snacks were provided by Laurie, Stuart and Charlotte Mitchell; Our musicians for the Christmas Eve pageant were Dawson Bell, Andy DelMonte, Jan Kahdeman, Vera Patten and Brian Plaugher.

Special Thank You Notes

Thank you to the Community Church community for everything you have done for Darryl and myself during his illness and after his death. Words cannot express the deep gratitude for your prayers, phone calls and visits both during Darryl's illness and following his death. There are so many to thank for his beautiful memorial service – Pastor Ben and Rachel, the choir, all the musicians, Gail Thomas for flowers, Karin for printing, the usher, all those who helped with the reception preparing food, set up and clean up – the list goes on and on. As everyone knows, Darryl loved this church community and has always said that from the moment we walked through the doors that he felt he was home – and now, he truly is home.

Alvin Hukjins

The Christmas Carol Sing-Along

Thank you to organizer Olivia Stoll and all the children who participated in The Christmas Carol Sing-a-long on December 18th. The concert was completely child led and they all did a great job. Not only was it fun for all, but $221.73 was collected from a goodwill offering to support the efforts of the Together Rising organization to provide aid to children in Aleppo.

Great job Oliva for seeing a need and working hard to make the concert happen!

MISSION & OUTREACH SEEKING NEW MEMBERS

At least 6 new members are needed to begin serving on the Mission & Outreach Committee beginning in February 2017. Four of the current members will complete 4 years of service next January and under church bylaws, must step down for at least one year. Two others have notified me they are unable to continue serving due to personal circumstances.

Thus, I am looking for church members interested in participating in our congregations Outreach efforts to the world beyond our doors. Persons who have never served on Mission & Outreach as well as former members are welcome. We anticipate a larger Outreach budget in 2017 enabling us to do more than in recent years. If you are curious, have questions, or know you want to be part of our action, contact me at rottenappleranch@aol.com or leave a message in the M & O mail slot in the church office.

Steve Beck, Chair

We will read the passage, discuss it, and then listen to the Sunday sermon with a little more insight and hear what the pastor has to say.

You don't need to be a Bible scholar, just have the desire to delve into the Bible, one scripture at a time. We hope you will join us.
